PRESS RELEASE

August 7, 1987

PLEASE NOTE:

Border Street, a Polish feature film that was scheduled to be shown on August 5 as part of The Cleveland Museum of Art series "Masterpieces from Eastern Europe," but was not shown on that date, has been rescheduled for Sunday, August 23, at 3:15 pm in Gartner Auditorium. It will follow the previously-announced 1:30 pm showing of the 1961 French film Last Year at Marienbad. There will be a 15-minute intermission between films. Both movies are free.

Border Street, a 1948 drama directed by Aleksander Ford, is set against the Warsaw ghetto uprising during the Nazi Occupation of Poland. The movie is widely regarded as one of the most significant achievements of the postwar Polish cinema. It is in Polish with English subtitles and lasts 110 minutes.
